Redwood City Over the Top In Bond Drive

Total war bond sales in Redwood City went over the top of the Sixth War Loan Drive quota of $750,204 here with $775,444 in bonds being sold to date, Chmn. Carl E. Ward announced today. However, Ward pointed out, sales of series "E" bonds total only $164,002.50, nearly half of the $311,216 quota set for the "people's bonds."

The Redwood City Lions Club and the Disabled American Veterans will combine efforts in conducting street sales of war bonds and stamps Saturday afternoon by presenting a program of entertainment, Sixth War Loan Drive Chmn. Carl E. Ward announced today.

In addition to entertainers who will present musical acts during the afternoon, convalescent soldiers from Dibble Hospital — approximately 8 to 10 in number — will be on hand to encourage bond purchases.

Entertainers, as announced by Chmn. Fred Walker of the Lions Club and Chmn. Gene Barrett of the Disabled American Veterans, will include Eddie (the deacon) DiSano, pianist; George Andrews, vocalist; Rudy Grana, accordionist and Dick Russell and his hillbilly orchestra.

Ward also announced the war bond premiere showing of the motion picture, "And Now Tomorrow," starring Loretta Young and Alan Ladd, at the Redwood Theater, Tues., Dec. 12, at 8:30 p.m.

The picture will be the second war bond premiere held here during the Sixth War Loan Drive and admission will be by tickets obtained through war bond purchases only, he emphasized.

As the number of tickets available for the show has been limited, he urged persons desiring to attend to buy bonds at an early date.

Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

There is no Commuter column today for the simple reason that we have not received one scratch of news or comment from any source. We've been too busy to "beat the bushes" on our own; and keyhole peeping is out of our line. If you are one of those queer people who enjoy the nonsense of this column you can assure its continuity by writing or phoning in an occasional quip, news item or comment on your favorite subject. Your contributions can laugh or cry, criticize or condemn. We can take it. What we can't take is to be ignored. And remember, you don't have to be a commuter to contribute to Caboose's column. In fact, we should enjoy learning about the birds and bees from some of our non-commuting readers. Particularly should we like to hear from some of our San Carlos friends, commuters and otherwise.

Sincerely yours,
Joe Caboose.

Bayshore Auto Crash Kills 3; Many Injured

Three men are dead and one woman is in a critical condition at Mills Memorial Hospital today as a result of a head-on collision between two cars Sunday morning at 4 o'clock on Bayshore Highway in San Mateo.

The triple deaths raised San Mateo County's traffic list of fatalities to 45 for the year while the record of traffic injuries took a leap from a series of weekend accidents. Last year's death list from traffic accidents at this time stood at 47 for the county.

Killed in the Sunday morning crash on Bayshore Hwy. just south of 10th Ave. in San Mateo were:

Morris McCoy Williams, 37, Point Richmond Station 112.

Carl M. Madsen, 43, San Francisco.

Warrant Officer Roger N. Stein, 25, USN, Point Montara.

Near death at Mills Hospital is Ruth A. Freeman, a WAVE, stationed at Moffett Field, who is suffering from a crushed chest, punctured lung and other injuries.

They believed that the car driven by Stein, in which Miss Freeman was a passenger, was traveling south and the automobile driven by Williams in which Madsen was a passenger, was going north.

Williams was killed almost instantly and Madsen died five minutes after his arrival at the hospital.

Stein, who suffered a fractured left leg and possible hip and leg fractures, head and eye injuries, succumbed at 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

The car driven by Stein was owned by Harold A. DeMoranville of Point Montara.

Police officers said that although there was no illumination on four-lane Bayshore Hwy., the road was dry and traffic was light. When they arrived, they said, the Williams' car was facing north in the slow lane on the west side of the highway and the Stein car was straddling the separation line of the fast and slow lane on the east side of the highway.

News of Williams death was relayed to his wife in Santa Cruz by Coroner William Crosby, and news of Madsen's death was sent to his former wife, at 319 Divisadero St. in San Francisco. Relatives in Nebraska, Madsen's home, were also to be notified by Crosby.

Lt. Comdr. John S. Skinner of the Point Montara Naval Station had called Chief of Police Robert E. O'Brien at 11:30 Sunday morning to advise that Stein would be taken to Oak Knoll Naval Hospital or to Treasure Island when he could be moved, but the injured man passed away that afternoon.

Two persons suffered minor injuries at 5:05 p. m. Saturday on Sneath Ln. near the Junipero Serra Blvd. intersection when automobiles driven by Earl Miner, 43, 775 14th Ave., Menlo Park, and Kent E. Weinand, 17, 278 Magnolia Ave., Millbrae, collided.

Injured were Mrs. L. G. Miner, 43, and Mrs. Kent Weinand, 40, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Millbrae People Face OPA Suit

Defendants in a complaint asking treble damages in the amount of $268.59, arising out of an alleged sale of a used refrigerator at a price of $89.53, in excess of the legal ceiling price, yesterday filed a demurrer to the suit in superior court here.

The Dist. Office of Price Admisistration yesterday afternoon filed istration this week filed a petition of intervention in the action entitled Whipkey vs. Bennett.

Walter F. Whipkey is the plaintiff. Defendants are Marie Bennett, James W. Bennett and E. A. Bennett of Millbrae.

The OPA's intervention in this action is on the ground that the litigation involves the interpretation of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and Maximum Price Regulation 139.

The matter will be argued in Judge A. R. Cotton's superior court Monday. It was transferred here from Justice of the Peace Gus B. Risso's court in Burlingame.

Schools Accumulate Postwar Building Fund

Schools in San Mateo County will accumulate $356,000 toward postwar building construction in accordance with a state-wide plan to accumulate funds to underwrite pay-as-you-go capital outlay programs according to a report of the California Tax Digest. This encourages clear-cut labeling of building funds rather than the carrying of unduly large or undistributed reserves.

Belmont Elementary School in two years will have accumulated $15,000; Burlingame Elementary in three years, $50,000; Half Moon Bay Union High School, in three years, $8000; Ravenswood Elementary in three years, $44,000; Redwood City Elementary in one year, $75,000, and San Mateo Elementary, $164,000 this year.

Redwood City Youth Tells Of Yank Landing on Leyte

Pharmasist's Mate 1/c Joe Murdock of the coast guard describes his part in the invasion of the Philippines in a letter recently received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bollinger, 5 Fulton St., Redwood City.

Murdock, aboard a small ship on convoy duty, wrote:

"We were told tonight that we could tell about the last invasion we were in, the Philippines. It was something that I will never forget. We went to the island of Leyte and there was not much trouble geeting there, but after we got there the fun began. We arrived early in the morning with our convoy, and hung around while the ships were being unloaded. The big ships—and I mean big—blew hell out of the hills and beaches all day. I always thought that a battle ship fired a few big ones and then quit for all day. I'm wrong they don't stop until they have flattened the joint. The dive bombers went into action on some objectives and flattened them in nothing flat.

"While we were watching all of this, some Filipinos came out to the ship. They were a surprise to everyone on ship as they spoke good English and wore clothes. The most outstanding thing was that they tried to give us some small chickens. I mean give, not trade.

I saw something that you don't see very often. The guys went all out and gave them clothing, food, and about anything they wanted. The fact that they wanted to give us something for coming back surprised us very much as every other place we had been the natives were out to rob us.

"At dusk the Japs came back. I mean a couple of their planes tried to get over us—they met a mess of bullets. It was, what you might say in a way, pretty because it was almost dark and the tracer bullets lighted up the sky so that a Fourth of July display looked like a small affair.

"While this was going on, we were on our way out of the gulf, which was about a 60 mile trip. Half way out we turned around and went back to the beaches. When we got back there, the star shells were lighting up the whole place and were helped along with a large bomb or shell every now and then. That kept us up all night. There was not much sleep for a lot of us because we sat up and watched. We were not near enough to be in danger so later we went to bed. In the morning I woke up and went out on deck. We were just about three miles off the Jap held island of Samar. My life jacket and I became very good friends immediately. We left the next night with our convoy to go back to the place where we started from. It was very eventful also and I don't care to go through it again. Mines and subs. (Someone on here must be a good friend of God.)

"I sure hope that the war is over soon, as I, with a couple million others want to go home."

He entered the service two years ago and is a graduate of Sequoia High School and Menlo Junior College. He has been overseas for five months.

His grandmother is Mrs. A. Chisholm of Redwood City.

Goslaw Guilty In S.C. Robbery

Superior Court Judge Aylett R. Cotton Monday afternoon sentenced Ralph W. Goslaw, 21, of Long Beach, to San Quentin Prison for robbing a San Carlos service station of $50 in cash on Nov. 5.

Mrs. Marian Ethridge, 19, who remained in Goslaw's car during the robbery, pleaded not guilty to a charge of robbery. A third member of the party, Mrs. Patricia McMinn, 17, has been certified to the juvenile court.

Judge Cotton sentenced Goslaw to prison after Probation Officer John S. Cowgill recommended that probation be denied. Goslaw has served one year in jail at Los Angeles for auto theft, two terms at Whittier Reform School, one 14 months and one 16 months, and 19 months at Preston Reformatory.

"It doesn't seem there is anything I can do for you," Judge Cotton told neat-appearing Goslaw. "I'm sorry. You just won't learn."

The trio was charged with robbing the Mohawk Service Station on El Camino Real at Greenwood Ave., San Carlos, of which Francis D. Hansen of Redwood City is the operator, who was held at gunpoint.

The three were arrested a short time later at a Redwood City bar by Redwood City and San Carlos police after Hansen had discovered their car parked on a street here.

Sgt. Kenneth Douglass Returns to Orlando

Sgt. Kenneth Douglass has returned to his station at Orlando, Fla., after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Douglass of 81 Edgewood Ave., Atherton.

Douglass, a radio and communications technician, is in the army air forces.

His wife, Phyliss, resides in Palo Alto with her parents.

Find Missing S.M. Woman

Employes of "House on Hill"—Mrs. T. C. Clark's Hillsborough estate, were at dinner Tuesday when a knock came at the door.

They opened the door, and framed in the light stood a silvery haired old lady, one hand on the collar on her faithful Llewellyn setter.

It was Mrs. Helen E. Stuchell, 74-year-old wife of the Rev. John E. Stuchell, whose mysterious disappearance from her San Mateo home, 2207 Flores St., just 24 hours previous nad stimulated a county-wide search by plane, horseback and by Boy Scouts, police and sheriff's ground patrol.

Certain of Mrs. Stuchell's identity from newspaper and radio descriptions, the Clark employes verified their beliefs by calling the Rev. Stuchell to give him word of his wife's safety and then calling Robert E. O'Brien, police chief.

The Clark's staff said that it appeared as if Mrs. Stuchell could not realize that she spent a full 24 hours out of doors.

Although Mrs. Stuchell's night wanderings had taken her only about three miles away from her home, she and Terry for a night and a day had gone through thick underbrush, wooded hills, and up side of the steep canyon to finally find welcome light shining from the secluded Clark home.

A previous three hour seach of the hills by more than 30 Boy Scouts had halted at the canyon barrier which Mrs. Stuchell had made her way.

It is estimated that Finland's output of nickel in 1942 was 18,000 tons —or about 5 per cent of the world's supply.

The Eitwatersrand gold mine, near Johannesburg, South Africa, had more than 4000 miles of subterranean shafts and employs, under normal conditions, approximately 190,000 workers.

GARDEN: Greenthumbers Also Remember Pearl Harbor

BY ROLLY LANGLEY

It was three years ago this morning. Just three years, and yet so much has happened to change everything, to change all of us, it seems that Sunday morning which dawned on a gullible, credulous America must have been a decade ago at least. War has touched, has affected us all, and still after three years, Pearl Harbor isn't avenged!

Remember how people were talking that Sunday afternoon? Regardless of how much the war department knew then about the strength of the enemy, the man on the streets was most astounded by the utter audacious stupidity of the Japs who would dare attack the United States!. And people were saying we'd "wipe 'em off the face of the map within three months at most!"

We didn't know the score three years ago today. And for one, I doubt that most of us know the score today. Either we're letting down prematurely, or foreign correspondents are overplaying the tough side of the news. Talks with numerous soldiers, sailors and marines recently out there convince me the war reporters aren't overemphasizing. Far from it.

Yet people are walking out before the play's over, just as though they'd read the book, knew the outcome and found the action boring. Plenty cocksure! Plenty stupid!

Only last week I visited a soldier just back from the Pacific combat zone. His tongue had been cut out, one leg had been amputated just above the knee. Against the pillow his gaunt cheeks were blue-grey, except where the skin pulled tight against the cheekbone and caught a high-light. He was plenty bored, you can bet, but he wasn't cocksure about anything.

May be it was the thought of him and a lot like him that made a speaker on gardens seem so off the beam the following day.

"People have talked, read enough, heard too much concerning, and done quite their stint of growing vegetables. The day of victory gardening is past," she said. It was all so pat, anyone could tell the words were memorized.

"Nuts to such a philosophy," the fellow sitting next to me muttered as he rose to go. "Echo here," said I, following.

And I still feel that way. So long as there's a manpower shortage, so long as rubber and gas are rationed . . . so long as the war lasts and until Pearl Harbor and the thousands upon thousands of casualties since have been avenged through complete victory over enemies around the world, let's all say "nuts to a philosophy" of letdowns. Anywhere along the line.

If you've slipped and want to commemorate today by putting in some winter food, there's plenty to do. What's more, you'll save money, if you garden carefully, and while the Sixth War Loan drive will be over by the time your savings are effected, you will still be able to invest in government securities. Maybe you didn't realize it, but War Savings Stamps are still available too.

Swiss chard is rich in vitamins, and it grows easily now. Lucullus variety is okay. Plant it a half inch deep on raised beds, and keep out the weeds. That last bit of advice goes for every part of the garden.

Loose-leaf lettuce and spinach, and mustard greens, head lettuce too, can all be planted now. Tendergreen mustard is one of the most popular varieties.

Seeds of onions can be planted in the cold frame now—or in a deep flat. Don't crowd the small seed. Or you can plant the seeds in individual containers—several seeds to the plant band.

All the green vegetables, including beets-for-greens, are best for planting at this season. Have at 'em, and until Pearl Harbor seems like a nightmare to the Japs instead of a debut on the big time, let's keep 'em growing!

County's Debt Now $3,813,709

Bonded debt of the county and other local governments in San Mateo County totaled $3,813,709 at June 30, 1943, an average of $27.64 per person, California Taxpayers' Assn. stated today, making public its study of the latest data available on the combined debt of local governments in California counties.

Total bonded debt in the county was made up of $249,000 for the county government, $1,685,691 for the cities in the county, $1,736,000 for the school districts, and $143,018 for the special districts. The last figure may be incomplete, many special districts not reporting to any central agency.

In all, California counties and other local governments had a total bonded debt of $862,567,662 at June 30, 1943. The counties owed $138,731,500; municipalities, $523,726,155; school districts, $151,981,630; and special districts, $48,128,377. This averaged $110.66 per person. Only two counties, Alpine and Mono, reported no debt.

James T. Provins Wins New Rating

James T. Provin, son of C. H. Provin of Redwood City, has been promoted to master sergeant in the adjutant general section of the South Pacific Base Command Headquarters, according to word received here today.

Provin, former accountant for the Shell Oil Co. in San Francisco, is the chief clerk in the files office where official correspondence and information is kept, and he directs the work of a large staff of men.

He entered the service in August 1942, and went overseas in September 1942 with the original South Pacific headquarters task force.

Spangler Named Exchange Head

Redwood City Exchange Club today was on record favoring acquisition of the 973½-acre Huddart Park in the Woodside area by the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors.

The club adopted a resolution introduced by K. B. Towne, commending the board for its interest in the park and recommending that all steps commensurate with public policy be taken to preserve the area for the perpetual use of the people.

The club elected the following officers for 1945: President, R. L. Spangler; first vice-president, J. Wesley Locker; second vice president, James C. Dodge; secretary, Glenn Brunson; treasurer, Henry Nissen; board of control, Floyd McCue, 1944 president; Jerry Shields, C. J. Whitley, and J. H. Buhler.

The club will hold its annual Christmas Party Dec. 19.

S.M. School District Aids War Bond Drive

The San Mateo Junior College district has purchased $76,000 worth of bonds of the Sixth War Loan and has apportioned the credit for the sales to the various high school districts making up the college district. The money used came out of the college building funds.

Half Moon Bay Union High School district is credited with $4,000, Jefferson Union High with $18,000, and the San Mateo Union High School district with $54,000.

Halt Car Lot Fire Without Damage

Redwood City Fire Dept. answered one of its routine calls at 12:02 a. m. Sunday—to extinguish a fire in an automobile in a lot termed by Fire Chief Mark E. Ryan as a "graveyard for cars" adjacent to the Davies Auto Co.'s used car lot. Firemen have made numerous visits to the lot to put out blazes which apparently have been set. Ryan said no one had been caught setting the blazes.

Postmaster Asks Early Mailing

"Redwood City residents are cooperating by mailing their Christmas packages early, but so far, very few persons have mailed Christmas cards," Postmaster Robert O'Connell stated today in reminding the public that delivery of Christmas mail on time cannot be assured unless packages and cards are posted soon.

"We anticipate a larger than ever before volume of mail during the holiday season and we appreciate the co-operation of persons who are complying with our requests," he declared.

O'Connell today pointed out that cards mailed locally can be handled more quickly when they are tied in small bundles and kept separate from out-going mail.

"We also want to remind people that unsealed envelopes sent with a cent and a half stamp carry no forwarding or return service, and will not be accepted for overseas delivery," he added.

Sailors Jailed In Auto Theft

Two sailors stationed at Montara Naval Station were arrested by Daly City police early this week and charged with stealing an automobile at Princeton belonging to Caesar Pelligrini of Half Moon Bay.

The sailors, Myron G. Trimble, 18, and John F. Cleghorn, 18, were turned over to the sheriff's office here and then turned over to the shore patrol.

We wish we could tell you but the fact is that it depends on these two things:

1 The extent to which present subscribers may decide to give up service, thus releasing central office equipment, instruments, outside wires, etc.

2 The extent to which manufacturing facilities and manpower, now and released equipment, are available after the needs of war are met.

Meantime, we promise you this: Your application will not be forgotten and it will be filled in the proper turn.

Offer Rare Items At Bond Rally

For sale — two electric irons, seven pairs of nylon hosiery, electric toaster, carton of jello, alarm clock, cartons of cigarets, three turkeys, two hams, slab of bacon and four boxes of groceries. If you can use any of these items plan to attend the Menlo Park district War Bond rally, Saturday, Dec. 16, 8 p.m., at the Central School where they will be auctioned off to the highest War Bond bidder.

Lt. Glenn Horwege Prisoner of Nazis

Lt. Glenn L. Horwege, who was reported missing after a dive bombing mission near Paris on Aug. 8, is a prisoner of war in Germany, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Horwege, formerly of Redwood City, learned Monday.

Horwege, pilot of a P-47 Thunderbolt, bailed out of his plane after it was damaged by flak, his fellow pilots reported, but it was only this week that his parents, now residents of Sunnyvale, received word from the American Red Cross that he was a prisoner.

He was graduated from Sequoia High School in 1940 and received his commission in January of this year.

His brother, Ray, is a lieutenant in the air forces and is currently stationed at Merced where he is an instructor.

Airman Describes Flying Thrills

How his bomber flew through tropical thunder clouds and how it landed solely with the aid of instruments on Rabaul and on other Pacific Island bases was related by Capt. W. B. Compton, pilot now convalescing at Dibble General Hospital, to members of the Aero Club and the general public this week at Sequoia High School.

Captain Compton, who wears the Distinguished Service Cross and four Presidential Citations, discussed various phases of instrument flying and told how he made a forced landing on a New Guinea beach and flew over the Owen-Stanley Mountains. His was the second in a series of talks to be given by returning veterans before the Aero Club.

R.C. Auto Wreckers Face Multiple Charges in Warrant Issued by Sheriff

The Buckley brothers have gotten into trouble with the law over their auto wrecking business on Middlefield Rd. again.

The brothers — William and Charles—owners of the Buckley Garage on Middlefield Rd. at Dumbarton Ave., this week were charged with engaging in the auto wrecking business without a permit from the board of supervisors, failure to notify the sheriff's office of cars they have received for wrecking purposes, failure to have a tight board fence at least six feet in height around the premises, and failure to pile the wrecked cars in such a way as to allow clear passageways.

Deputies from Sheriff James J. McGrath's office arrested the brothers on a warrant and they were released on their own recognizance. The complaint against the Buckleys was signed by County Planning Adviser Ronald Campbell.

Thursday at 2:30 p.m. has been set as the time for the brothers to appear before Justice of the Peace Edward I. McAuliffe.

In July, 1943, County Engineer M. A. Grant, irked by months of delay in clearing junked automobiles from the Buckley Garage, took the law into his own hands, moved a road department crane to the scene and proceeded to hoist the objectionable jalopies 60 feet to the rear of the garage.

Judge A. R. Cotton, in whose superior court the pair appeared, set Dec. 18 at 1:30 p. m. for a sanity hearing.

Perry and Madison, who have confessed to disinterring and mutilating the body of a young Redwood City woman in a Menlo Park cemetery, were sentenced to the Mendocino State Hospital for the Criminally Insane at Ukiah in August, but they were declared sane in October and returned here for trial.

A psychiatric board here had ruled that the pair had the mentality of six- and eight-year olds.

IT'S ALL OVER BUT THE WAR

"The Japanese will not crack, even when eventual defeat stares them in the face. They will pull their belts in another notch and fight to the bitter end."—Joseph C. Grew, for 10 years our Ambassador to Japan.

It takes twice as many cargo ships in the Pacific as in the Atlantic to support a task force of the same size, due to the distance. Fighting the Japs will be a long, expensive job.

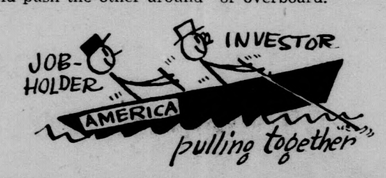
We must all start all over again in our purchase of War Bonds. We have simply gotta find some way to scrape the bottom of the barrel for more money to buy more bonds.

ANOTHER "DON'T YOU KNOW" STORY

A year ago Ernie Pyle, just back from Tunisia and Sicily, went into a store to buy a hat. The clerk couldn't produce the kind of light felt Ernie wanted, so Ernie said he guessed he'd look elsewhere. The clerk said haughtily: "Don't you know there's a war on?"

ALL IN THE SAME BOAT

Gradually, investors and workers (they are often the same persons) are seeing that they are going the same way. Each should realize that the other is pulling an oar. Neither should push the other around—or overboard.



Investors supply cash (often taking a big gamble), to provide the tools required for initiative, inventiveness, executive talent, research, manufacturing and selling. And the jobholders do the job. Neither the company nor the jobholder is worth a hoot without the necessary wherewithall.

And all of them would be sunk if the company didn't see to it that its jobholders made the kind of things that customers would buy.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO INVEST IN A COMPANY THAT TO MAKE ASBESTOS ROOFING?
JOHN, HERE'S SOME ASBESTOS AND OTHER STUFF. WILL YOU MAKE SOME ROOFING?
MISTER, WOULD YOU LIKE TO BUY SOME ASBESTOS ROOFING?

ANOTHER J-M ROUNDABOUT WAR JOB

It's odd how indirect some of our help has to be in this complex war. You wouldn't think J-M would have anything to do with silver-plated bearings in airplane motors. (Maybe you don't even know that silver is used in bearings, because it stands up so well under high speeds and temperatures.) Well, here's how J-M gets in on this:

Before the silver-plating is applied, the silver, in liquid form, is strained through filter sheets containing refined J-M asbestos, to remove every trace of grit which might injure the bearings!

A short time later Swiss radio said that both Zurich and Nurnburg observatories had recorded an "extremely violent earthquake in the direction of Japan."

"In case the quake took place in populated regions the consequences are bound to be catastrophic," the Swiss announcement heard by the Associated Press reported.

Shaw described the quake as one of the greatest I have ever recorded."

Three Redwood City organizations that are members of the Veteran Hospitals Christmas Committee are aiding in staging California's biggest Christmas party.

The party will be for thousands of patients of the U.S. Naval Hospital, Oakland; U.S. Naval Hospital, San Leandro; U.S. Army Regional Hospital, Oakland; U.S. Veterans' Hospital, Livermore, and U.S. Naval Hospital, Shoemaker.

Every patient in each of the five big hospitals is to receive an individually wrapped and addressed present, and a program of entertainment and Christmas decorations through all the hundreds of wards throughout the Yuletide season is planned.

The committee represents nearly 800 groups in hundreds of California towns which have been active in providing Christmas cheer for military hospital patients for more than 20 years. This year many new organizations have joined in the cause, which has grown from a project calling for only a few thousand dollars 20 years ago to a budget this year of more than $50,000.

Redwood City organizations that have contributed to the budget are Post 105, American Legion; Bonita Parlor 10, Native Daughters of the Golden West, and Redwood Parlor 66, Native Sons of the Golden West.

The oldest Spanish university is that of Salamanca, founded in 1239.

City Council Begins Work On Postwar Building Sites

In a move to acquire land for a postwar community center—part of the $998,000 city public works program—Redwood City councilmen this week authorized the instigation of condemnation proceedings against approximately 18 acres of land located between Madison and Roosevelt Aves.

Of an area which has never been subdivided, the city owns a lot at the corner of Roosevelt Ave and Dickey St., and it has also acquired several lots in an area bordered by Madison Ave., Hanks St., and Vera Ave.

The condemnation proceedings will lead to the acquiring additional lots in that area and a 150-foot frontage on Roosevelt Ave., in addition to other land in the area.

A letter from Lars O. Andersson and Leonard Hansen, owners of the Woodside Club, requesting a dance permit, started off a discussion on dancing in places where liquor is sold, and concluded with the council's instructing the city attorney to prepare an ordinance prohibiting dancing in bars and their premises.

Accompanying the letter was a petition signed by 26 persons who requested the permit be granted.

Mrs. Andersson, appearing for the club owners, told the council that she, her husband, and Hansen were aware of the city ordinance prohibiting dancing within the same room or enclosure in which intoxicating liquor is sold or given away, and that they planned to permit their patrons to dance in a room separate from the bar.

Councilman E. A. Fletcher moved that the permit be granted, with Councilman George W. McNulty seconding the motion, but three of the councilmen expressed ardent disapproval of the motion.

Councilman C. A. Britschgi declared that he would not favor the grant since he had voted against a similar request at a recent council meeting, while Councilman C. C. Armstrong said he would vote "no" because of his personal conviction against dancing where liquor is sold.

Because he felt that granting of the permit would further juvenile delinquency, Councilman Floyd Granger said he would vote against the granting of dance permits to bars.

When a vote was taken on the granting of the permit to the Woodside Club, Mayor W. W. Hilton, Fletcher and McNulty voted "yes" and absence of Councilman H. F. Anderson left the balloting at a tie.

In reply to Mayor Hilton's question, "what will happen if someone wants to open a first class night club in Redwood City?" Britschgi stated that he was sure there was a difference between a bar and a night club, pointing out a distinction made in San Francisco.

Britschgi moved that the city attorney draw up an ordinance prohibiting dancing in bars and present the measure to the council at the next meeting. His motion received a second from Armstrong. Britschgi also moved that the matter of the Woodside Club permit be placed on the agenda.

In a report presented to the council by Mayor Hilton, he stated that C. G. Uhlenberg had agreed to audit the city's books for the four-month period beginning July 1, 1944, for $250.

Uhlenberg was contracted to audit the city finances from Dec. 1 to June 30, 1945, at a monthly salary of $125, and the $250 payment will be for services prior to this month.

The council authorized the payment, and also authorized the transfer of $1250 from the unbudgeted reserve to the auditing fund to pay for Uhlenberg's salary for the remainder of the fiscal year.

A discussion was held on an addition to the Greenbach home on Copley Ave., when the question arose as to whether the addition was detached.

Separate structures, prohibited by city ordinances in a first class residential zone, have been considered in an amendment which would define a "detached building" and the council last night instructed City Atty. Paul A. McCarthy to further define a detached structure in the amendment before additional action is taken on the legislation.

City Mgr. Robert W. Mead reported that pedestrian crossings on Hazel and Willow Sts. would be installed with the approval of the California State Highway Patrol.

Cooky and candy making

TIME TO start thinking about those holiday "goodies"! And here are three examples of how easy it is to turn those thoughts into delicious things-to-eat:

GINGERBREAD MEN

3 cups enriched flour
3 tsps. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. ginger
⅓ cup shortening
⅓ cup brown sugar firmly packed
⅔ cup dark molasses
1 egg

Sift and measure flour; sift again with baking powder, salt, and ginger. Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add molasses and unbeaten egg; beat well. Add flour mixture gradually, mixing well after each addition. Roll on slightly floured board to ⅛-inch thickness. Cut with floured gingerbread-man cutter or cut a large square for the body, smaller circle for the head, and strips for the arms and legs. Place on lightly greased cooky or baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) until done, 10 to 12 minutes. Remove cookies immediately to rack; cool; store. Makes about 4 doz. 2-inch cookies or 6 large 10-inch gingerbread men.

GOLDEN OATMEAL COOKIES

1½ cups quick rolled oats
1 cup shortening
1½ cups brown sugar, firmly packed
2 tsps. vanilla extract
3 eggs
2 cups enriched flour
2 tsps. baking powder
¾ tsp. salt

Spread oats on cooky sheet and brown lightly in moderately hot oven (425° F.) about 12 to 15 minutes. Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy; add flavoring. Add eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Sift and measure flour; sift again with baking powder and salt; stir gradually into creamed mixture. Add toasted oats. Drop dough by teaspoonfuls in rows, about 2½ inches apart on lightly-greased cooky sheets. Bake in a moderately hot oven (425° F.) 5 to 7 minutes. Makes about 5 dozen cookies.

TURKISH DELIGHT

3 tbsps. unflavored gelatin
½ cup cold water
2 cups sugar
½ cup hot water
2 tbsps. orange juice
2 tbsps. lemon juice
1 tbsp. grated orange or lemon rind
8 drops yellow vegetable coloring

Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine sugar and hot water in saucepan and stir well until sugar is dissolved. Bring to boil; add softened gelatin and cook slowly for 20 minutes. Remove from heat and add orange and lemon juice, grated rind, and coloring. Pour to about 1-inch thickness into shallow pan (4 x 10) which has been rinsed with cold water. Let stand overnight; turn out on board lightly sprinkled with powdered sugar; cut in one-inch cubes and roll in powdered sugar. Makes about 40 cubes.
